

Muwakhat (Brotherhood)

Learning Outcomes

After studying this unit students will be able to:

- ❖ State the meaning of Muwakhat.
- ❖ Write about the sacrifice of the Ansar (Helpers) and the self-respect of Muhajireen (immigrants).
- ❖ Write about the social, political and economic benefits of Muwakhat.

Meaning of Muwakhat:

'Muwakhat' (مواخات) is an Arabic word, which means 'Brotherhood'. When the persecutions of the people of Makkah on Muslims exceeded their limits and it became difficult for the Muslims to practice and propagate their religion in Makkah, then, by the command of Allah, the Nabi Karim ﷺ ordered the Muslims to migrate from Makkah to Madinah. All the Muslims left their homeland (Makkah) and went to Madinah. They left each and everything in Makkah for the sake of Islam.

The basic problems for the Muslims, who reached Madinah, were the arrangements of their residence and livelihood. Keeping this matter in mind, the Nabi Karim ﷺ established the relationship of Muwakhat (brotherhood) between the original-resident Muslims of Madinah (Ansar) and his companions رضى الله عنهم who had migrated from Makkah to Madinah (Muhajireen) after the migration. In Islamic history, this relationship of brotherhood is known as the 'Muwakhat-e-Madinah'.

In the Holy Quran and Ahadith, the Muslims who migrated to Madinah are called 'Muhajireen' and the Muslims of Madinah are called 'Ansar'. Muhajireen means 'emigrants' and Ansar means 'helpers.'

Sacrifice of the Ansar Companions رضى الله عنهم: Although the Ansar companions رضى الله عنهم had accommodated the Muhajireen companions رضى الله عنهم as their honoured guests in their homes, but the Muhajireen of Makkah had self-respect and being the neighbours of the House of Allah (in Makkah), they were known as exemplary hosts themselves. So, they did not like to be permanent guests of the Ansar of Madinah and did not want to become a burden on them. They liked to earn with their own hands and serve their guests, so the Nabi Karim ﷺ thought about a permanent system for their support and established the system of Muwakhat so that the emigrants would not be a burden and trouble for the people of Madinah. Moreover, the dignity and self-respect of the refugees would also remain intact, and their collective manpower would not be wasted and result in economic prosperity.

The Ansar tried their best to meet all the needs of the emigrants. Whosoever had two houses, that person gave one house to his emigrant brother and whosoever had two rooms, gave one room to his emigrant brother. The occupation of the Ansar was agriculture, while the emigrants were associated with the profession of trade. They did not know how to do farming; hence, the Ansar of Madinah provided them with some money so that they could start trading. The Rasool-ul-Allah ﷺ made Hazrat Abdul Rehman bin Awf رضى الله عنه, Saad bin Rabi's brother. Hazrat Saad رضى الله عنه was a wealthy man. He offered to give half of his wealth to Hazrat Abdul Rehman bin Auf رضى الله عنه, but Hazrat Abdul Rehman bin Auf رضى الله عنه showed self-esteem and said: May Allah bless your property and wealth, tell me the way to the market so that I can trade there. In a short time Abdul Rehman's رضى الله عنه trade was blessed so much that his goods were transported on seven hundred camels and when his trade caravan would arrive in Madinah, the whole city would get excited for it.

Some of the Companions رضى الله عنهم opened shops. Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique رضى الله عنه used to trade in cloth and Hazrat Usman رضى الله عنه used to trade in dates. Hazrat Umar رضى الله عنه also got engaged in business. In the same way, other emigrant Companions رضى الله عنهم of the Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ also got engaged in small and large businesses.

Due to Muwakhat-e-Madinah, the problems of the refugees ended and they acquired peace and tranquillity. Muwakhat resulted in the establishment of an Islamic society in Madinah. The Muhajireen and the Ansar worked together for the propagation of Islam and conveyed the message of Allah to the people. This is the reason that Islam spread far and wide within a few years. The practical model of brotherhood, compassion and collective support, which the Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ presented in the form of Muwakhat, was so comprehensive, practical and result oriented that none of the great thinkers of the world have ever been able to present anything like it.

It is learnt from this unit that

- Muwakhat means brotherhood, it refers to the brotherhood that The Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ established between the Muhajireen and the Ansar.
- Muwakhat-e-Madinah is one of the great examples of The Nabi Karim's صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ wisdom and insight.
- Through Muwakhat-e-Madinah, Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ presented the best example of collective support system.
- The economic problems of the refugees were resolved through Muwakhat-e-Madinah.
- Due to Muwakhat, the Ansar and Muhajireen worked together to spread Islam to distant regions outside the Arabian Peninsula.

We should learn from the sacrifice of the Ansar of Madinah and the self-respect of the Muhajireen and follow them. Following them will not only give us honour in this world but also eternal success in the hereafter.

Activity for the students

Present a play related to Muwakhat (brotherhood) in your class.

Exercise

1. Answer the following questions.

1. What is meant by Muwakhat?

Instructions for the teachers

- Explain additional causes of the migration to Madinah and provide further details about this event to the students.
- Provide students a list of names of the Ansar and Muhajir Companions رضى الله عنهم who were made brothers and ask them to write it in their note books.

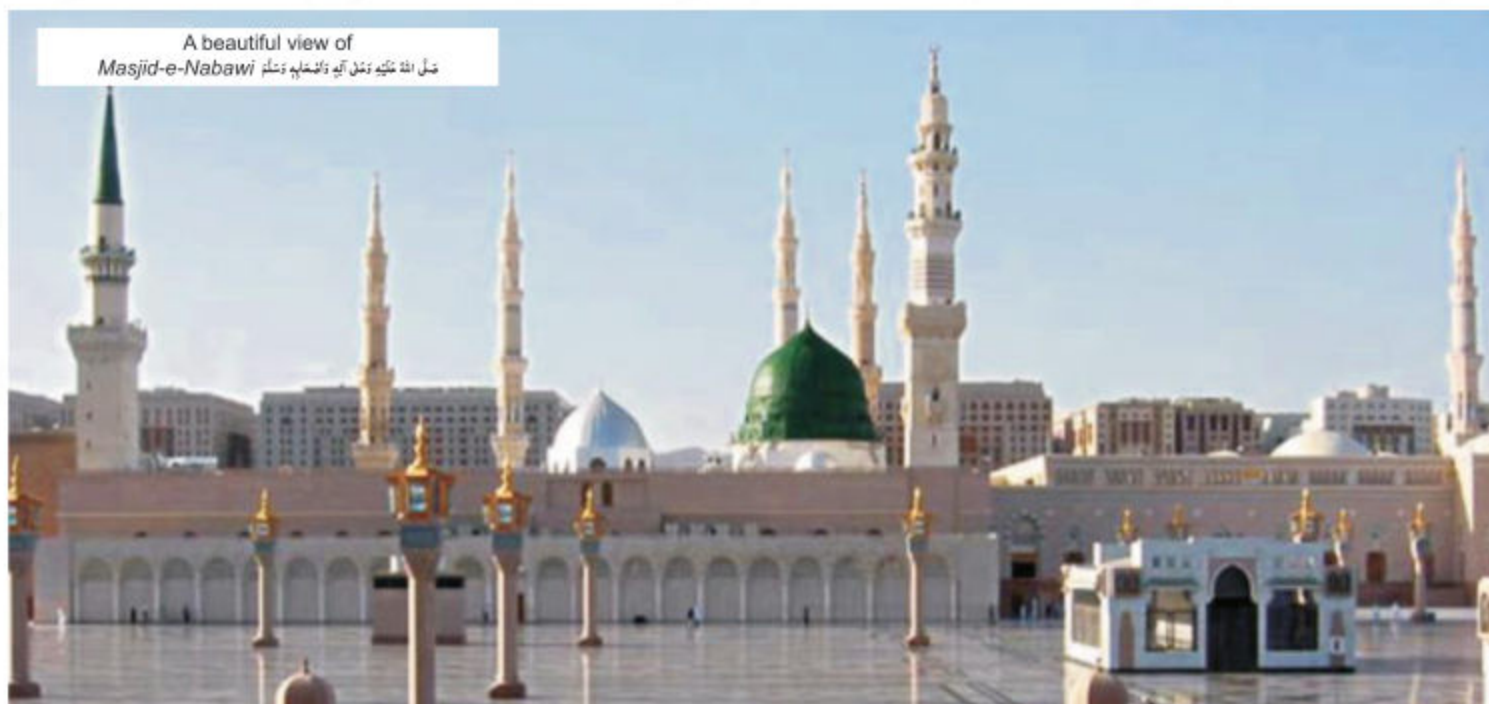

Construction of Masjid-e-Nabawi ﷺ

Learning Outcomes

After studying this unit students will be able to:

- ❖ Provide information about the construction of second Masjid of Islam, Masjid-e-Nabawi ﷺ.
- ❖ Describe the virtues and significance of Masjid-e-Nabawi ﷺ.
- ❖ Write about social significance of Masjid-e-Nabawi ﷺ.

A beautiful view of Masjid-e-Nabawi ﷺ

Introduction:

When the Nabi Karim ﷺ migrated from Makkah to Madinah, every companion of the Ansar wished to have the honour of being the host of The Nabi Karim ﷺ. At that time, the Nabi Karim ﷺ was riding a camel named Quswa. The Nabi Karim ﷺ put the reins of the camel on its neck and said: 'Leave the camel, it is assigned by Allah. Wherever the camel sits, I will stay there.' So, the camel sat in front of the house of Hazrat Abu Ayyub Ansari رضي الله عنه, who was also a maternal relative of the Nabi Karim ﷺ. Hence, the Nabi Karim ﷺ stayed at his house and made it the centre of the propagation of Islam.

Construction of Masjid-e-Nabawi ﷺ: After reaching Madinah, the first thing the The Nabi Karim ﷺ ordered was to build a Masjid. He chose the place where the camel had sat on his arrival. That land belonged to two orphans, Sahal and Sohail رضي الله عنهما. They offered this land to the service of the Rasool-ul-Allah ﷺ, free of charge, but the Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ refused to accept the place of these children free of charge and bought it by paying the price.

When the construction work of the Masjid started, The Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ laid the first stone with his blessed hand, and after that, his companions رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُمْ joined him, and together, they continued to lift bricks and stones during the construction.

The building of the Masjid was built in a very simple style. The walls were made of mud bricks and slurry. The pillars and beams were made of palm trunks, palm branches, and dried leaves and grass were put on the roof. In the beginning, the floor of the Masjid was composed of mud. Hence, the worshipers suffered when they prayed in the rain. So, later on, sand and small pebbles were laid on the ground. Three doors were fitted in the Masjid. The length of the Masjid from the wall of the Qibla to the back wall was one hundred hands (one hundred and fifty feet), the width was the same or a little less. The foundation of the Masjid was about three cubits (four and a half feet) deep. Later, as the number of Muslims increased, the Masjid was expanded.

Since after the death of Hazrat Khadijah رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهَا, Hazrat Sauda رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهَا and Hazrat Ayesha رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهَا were married to the Rasool-ul-Allah صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ in Makkah, so two small apartment were built for them near the Masjid. After the completion of the rooms, the Rasool-ul-Allah صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ moved from the house of Hazrat Abu Ayyub Ansari رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُ to these rooms. Later, when other 'Mothers of the Faithful' came, more rooms were built. Their doors faced the side of the Masjid. A platform was built in the north-eastern part of the Masjid, which was called 'Suffah' (صُفَّة) in Arabic. The Companions رَضِيَ اللهُ عَنْهُمْ of The Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ used to come to him from different parts of Arabia to learn the Quran. As they had not accommodation facility in Madinah, they used to stay in Suffah. They were called 'Ashab-e-Suffah' (اصحابِ صُفَّة) whose number kept changing.

Virtues of Masjid Nabawi صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ: While describing the virtues of the Masjid which later came to be known as the Masjid-u-Nabawi صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ, the Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: 'The reward of performing one Namaz in this Masjid, i.e., the Masjid-u-Nabawi صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ, is more than a thousand Namaz compared to other Masajid except for Masjid-e-Haram.'

Social Significance of Masjid-e-Nabawi صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ: Masjid-e-Nabawi صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ was not only a place for Namaz or worship, but was also a centre of political, economic, social and religious activities. It was a school in which Muslims used to get Islamic education and would take guidance from the The Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ in every field, and it was a meeting place where members of the Arab tribes who had been fighting for a long time, would come and sit together with love and affection. Also, it was a centre from where the entire system of the small state of Madinah was run. When Jihad was permitted, the Prophet's صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ Masjid became the centre for Jihad preparations. Here, the Mujahideen (soldiers) were given war training and from here, they were sent on military campaigns. In addition, it had the status of a Dar Al-Shura (parliament) where meetings were held about various national and international matters. Along with all this, the Masjid was the abode of a significant number of those poor people who had no houses, no wealth and no family.

It is learnt from this unit that

- Masjid has a great significance in an Islamic society that is why The Nabi Karim ﷺ built a Masjid as soon as he arrived in Madinah.
- Masjid-e-Nabawi ﷺ was not merely a worship place, but it was also a centre of political, economic, social and religious activities.
- Muslims should give that importance to the Masjid which was given to it in the time of The Nabi Karim ﷺ.

Activity for the students

Students must write a brief note about the virtues and social significance of Masjid-e-Nabawi ﷺ and present it in the class.

3-Charter of Madinah (Mithaq Madinah)

Learning Outcomes

After studying this chapter, the students will be able to:

- ❖ State the important terms and conditions of the Charter of Madinah.
- ❖ Write about the political, economic and social benefits of the Charter of Madinah.
- ❖ Explain the wisdom and political insight of The Nabi Karim ﷺ.

Meaning of the Charter of Madinah:

'Mithaq' (ميثاق) is an Arabic word which literally means 'charter', 'treaty', 'agreement' or 'covenant' etc. Mithaq-e-Madinah or the Charter of Madinah refers to the agreement that the Nabi Karim ﷺ concluded between Muslims, Jews and other tribes to establish peace in the small state of Madinah and make it strong and stable.

When the Rasool-ul-Allah ﷺ came to Madinah, two tribes of Ansar; Banu Aws and Banu Khazraj, and three tribes of Jews; Banu Qainqah, Banu Nadhir and Banu Qurayzah were settled in Madinah. Apart from them, there were other tribes living around in the out skirts of Madinah. The Prophet ﷺ gathered all the tribes of Madinah to maintain peace and order to stabilize the newly born state, and by mutual consent, an agreement was reached between the Jews, Muslims and other tribes, which got famous by the name of 'The Charter of Madinah.'

Important Clauses of the Charter of Madinah: The Charter of Madinah consisted of 54 articles, the most important of which are given below:

- All the tribes of Madinah will live in peace and harmony and all people will participate for the establishment of peace.
- In case of an attack by an external enemy on Madinah, all will fight the enemy together and collectively bear the costs of the war.
- All parties of the agreement will recognize Madinah as 'Haram' (a place of honour and peace) and will not cause any unrests in it.
- All parties of the agreement shall treat each other with goodwill and kindness.
- Each party shall have freedom of religion and there will be no interference in the religious affairs of any other party.
- The oppressed will be helped.
- No party of the agreement will give shelter to the people of the Quraysh tribe of Makkah.
- No man shall be liable for the crime of his ally.
- Each party will deal with its internal conflicts independently.
- If there is a disagreement between the parties to the contract, all the parties will accept the decision of the Rasool-ul-Allah ﷺ.

Significance and Benefits of the Treaty of Madinah: The Treaty of Madinah is a reflection of the political insight, social wisdom and best strategy of the Rasool-ul-Allah ﷺ. The way The Nabi Karim ﷺ recognized the religious, political and social rights of all the parties without any discrimination, shows his generosity, high character and the great of human equality. There is no example like this in history before The Nabi Karim ﷺ. The Charter of Madinah is an excellent model for establishing world peace and brotherhood. The treaty brought the following benefits:

- The Nabi Karim ﷺ became the head of the state of Madinah because of this agreement.
- He gathered people of different tribes and religions under one banner.
- Madinah was declared the City of Peace due to the Treaty of Madinah. It ended all kinds of internal revolt and corruption.
- Getting the support of the Jews was a great political achievement of The Nabi Karim ﷺ (particularly at that time).
- The Charter of Madinah was a political and social manifesto on which the Islamic state was founded.
- Defence of Madinah became stronger due to this agreement.

It is learnt from this unit that

- The Treaty of Madinah was an agreement based on equality between Muslims, Jews and those living around Madinah.
 - The purpose of this agreement was to provide stability in the Islamic state.
- In this agreement, religious freedom was given to the believers of all religions.

This agreement is a great example of the political insight of our Nabi Karim ﷺ. We must obey the Rasool-ul-Allah ﷺ and should benefit from his wisdom and insight.

Activity for the students

Students need to write down important articles and significance of the Charter of Madinah and narrate it to each other.

Instructions for the teachers

Inform the students about the Charter of Madinah in detail.

4-The Battle of Badr (Ghazwa-e-Badr)

Learning Outcomes

After studying this chapter, the students will be able to:

- ❖ Know about the causes and back ground of the Battle of Badr and provide information about it.
- ❖ Be aware about the events of the Battle of Badr and state them.
- ❖ Know the results of the Battle of Badr and write it.

Ground where Battle of Badr took place

Background of Ghazwa-e-Badr (Battle of Badr): After the Migration to Madinah, the Nabi Karim ﷺ and the emigrants of Makkah were able to live in a peaceful city and a small Islamic state was established. However, the polytheists of Makkah did not like that the Muslims were living peacefully, had established their independent Islamic state and were propagating Islam freely. They also fear that if Muslims were allowed to become powerful, then, they could take revenge of the atrocities inflicted on them by the Makkans by attacking Makkah. So, they used various conspiracies to wipe out the Muslims from the surface of Earth. On the other hand, Almighty Allah permitted Muslims to launch Jihad (Armed warfare) and the Battle of Badr took place at a place called Badr, on 17th Ramadan 2nd A.H. This battle was the first decisive battle between Kufr (disbelief) and Islam.

Causes of Ghazwa-e-Badr (Battle of Badr): There were several reasons for the Battle of Badr. One of the main reasons was that Hazrat Abu Sufyan رضى الله عنه (who had not converted to Islam at that time) was returning from Syria with a trade caravan. This caravan had a lot of wealth of the Makkans, i.e., there were a thousand camels loaded with goods which costed around fifty thousand dinars (262.5 kilos of gold) while there were only forty men to guard it. When this caravan reached near Madinah, Hazrat Abu Sufyan رضى الله عنه was afraid that the Muslims might stop the caravan, so he sent a message to Makkah for help. On this, an army of 1,000 men left for Madinah to attack the Muslims.

When The Nabi Karim ﷺ heard about the arrival of the Makkan army, he went to Badr, 80 miles (130 kilometres) from Madinah, to block them. There were 313 Muslims with The Nabi Karim ﷺ at that time. 84 out of them were Muhajireen while 229 were Ansar. The Muslim army did not even have full weapons to fight. They had a total of 6 swords and 2 armours. They had 70 camels and 2 horses for riding. Compared to them, the army of the infidels consisted of a thousand people. They had one hundred horses, 600 armours and 100 camels.

Events of Ghazwa-e-Badr (Battle of Badr): The army of the infidels and the Muslims faced each other at Badr. The disbeliever's army was led by Abu Jahl, while the Muslim army was commanded by The Nabi Karim ﷺ. The ground was sandy, so the feet of the soldiers were not able to stand firmly on the ground. Hence, one night before the battle, Allah Almighty sent rain to the battle field which made the ground smooth. The sand became hard and the soldiers were able to stand firmly on the ground. Muslim soldiers (Mujahideen) became refreshed after the rainfall. The same night, the Rasool-ul-Allah ﷺ kept praying to Allah for victory.

The Battle began on 17th of Ramadhan, 2 A.H. On behalf of the infidels, Utbah, his brother Shaiba and his son Walid bin Utbah entered the field to fight the Muslims. On behalf of the Muslims, Hazrat Ali رضي الله عنه, Hazrat Hamzah رضي الله عنه, and Hazrat Ubaidah bin Harith رضي الله عنه came on the field to fight them, and they quickly killed all the three disbelievers. After that, the war started and the Muslims showed great bravery. Furthermore, Allah Almighty sent divine help for the Muslims through angels. In the end, the Muslims were victorious in this battle, and the infidels faced a huge defeat. The leader of the pagan's army, Abu Jahl was killed by two young soldiers Muadh رضي الله عنه and Mu'awaz رضي الله عنه. 70 infidels were killed, 70 were taken prisoners and the rest fled from the Battle field. 14 Muslims were martyred in this battle, 6 belonged to the Muhajireen and 8 from the Ansar. In this battle, many of the heroes and prominent leaders of the infidels were killed.

The Nabi Karim's Exemplary Treatment with Prisoners: The Nabi Karim ﷺ treated the prisoners of Badr in a very nice manner. Some of them were set free as a gesture of favour. As for the remaining prisoners, it was decided that they should get their freedom by paying fidyah (ransom) amount. Some of them could not pay ransom but, they were literate. So, they were asked to impart education to ten Muslim children in exchange for their freedom.

Impact of the Battle of Badr:

- The Battle of Badr was the first battle between truth and falsehood, in which truth won and falsehood failed.
- In the Battle of Badr, the pride of the infidels of Makkah was crushed and their downfall began.
- After the success in the Battle of Badr, Islam began to spread rapidly.
- In the Battle of Badr, Allah led the Muslims to victory through unseen divine help.

From the battle of Badr, we get the lesson that Allah does not leave His servants alone in the work of religion which is done with trust in Allah and with sincere intention. He always supports them. Therefore, we should not hesitate to make any sacrifice for the revival of our religion and to support the truth as it always prevails.

It is learnt from this unit that

- The Battle of Badr took place on 17th of Ramadan 2 A.H. at Badr.
- This confrontation was the first war between the Muslims and the polytheists of Makkah.
- In this war, 14 Muslims were martyred and 70 infidels were killed and the same number were captured as prisoners.
- In this battle, Muslims were victorious and the infidels were defeated.

Activity for the students

Write about the results of the Battle of Badr and share with your friends.

Exercise

1. Answer the following questions:

Instructions for the teachers

Describe the aims and objectives of Ghazwat-e-Nabawi (The Nabi Karim's ﷺ Battles) to the students.

5-The Battle of Uhud (Ghazwa-e-Uhud)

Learning Outcomes

After studying this chapter, the students will be able to:

- ❖ Write down causes and background of the Battle of Uhud.
- ❖ Know and describe the events of the Battle of Uhud.
- ❖ To know and relate the impact of the Battle of Uhud.

The Uhud Mountain: A mountain named 'Uhud' is located 3 miles in the Northern side of Madinah. At the foot of this mountain, the second battle between the Muslims and the infidels of Makkah took place on 7th of Shawwal 3 A.H. which is called the Battle of Uhud or Ghazwa-e-Uhud.

Causes of the Battle of Uhud:

- In the Battle of Badr, 70 disbelievers of Makkah including their prominent leaders had been killed and the same number of people had been made war captives, so the Quraysh wanted to take revenge of that defeat from the Muslims.
- The sympathies of the Jews were also with the disbelievers of Makkah. They provoked them to take revenge and also promised to support them.
- The Quraysh had great honour and prestige in Arabia due to being the custodians of the Kabah in Makkah. The defeat at the Battle of Badr destroyed their honour. Therefore, they felt it necessary to take revenge against the Muslims to restore their dignity. As if it was a revenge war which was imposed on the Muslims by the infidels of Makkah.

Events of the Battle:

Due to the defeat and loss suffered by the people of Makkah in the battle of Badr and the shock of the slaughter of their chiefs and honoured ones, their hearts were filled with anger against the Muslims. Hence, after the Battle of Badr, they unanimously decided to avenge their loved ones and satisfy their anger by fighting a full-scale war against the Muslims. Hazrat Abbas رضي الله عنه, the uncle of The Nabi Karim صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم was in Makkah. He sent word to the The Nabi Karim صلی اللہ علیہ وسلم about the army of the infidels, who had set out to attack Madinah. As soon as The Nabi Karim ﷺ received the information, he sent a few companions رضي الله عنهم to assess the situation. It was found out that the army of the infidels had reached near Madinah. Hence, the Nabi Karim ﷺ called the companions رضي الله عنهم in Masjid-e-Nabawi ﷺ to consult about this matter.

The Nabi Karim ﷺ and Senior Companions رضي الله عنهم were of the opinion that they should not go out of Madinah, but should be fortified inside the city. This way, if the polytheists of Makkah stayed in their camp, their stay would be pointless and futile, and if they entered Madinah, the Muslims would fight them on the streets and the women would throw stones at them from the rooftops. However, the advice of the Young Companions رضي الله عنهم was that they should go out of the city and fight the enemy. The Prophet ﷺ saw the young people's passion for Jihad and accepted their advice.

The army of the infidels of Makkah consisted of 3000 warriors. They had 200 horses and 3000 camels, led by Hazrat Abu Sufyan رضي الله عنه (who had not yet converted to Islam). This army encamped near Mount Uhud on 6 Shawwal 3 A.H. The Nabi Karim ﷺ prepared an army of 1000 soldiers, which left for Uhud after the Asr Namaz on 6 Shawwal 3 A.H.

Abdullah bin Ubayy, the leader of the hypocrites, separated from the army of Islam along with 300 of his cohorts. So, the army of the Muslims was reduced to 700.

The army of Muslims and infidels faced each other on 7th Shawwal 3 A.H. The Nabi Karim ﷺ, from a defensive point of view, arranged the rows of Muslims soldiers (Mujahideen) in a way that Mount Uhud was at their backs. There was a narrow pass in Mount Uhud which is now known as 'Jabal Rumaat', from which there was a threat of the enemy's attack. The Nabi Karim ﷺ appointed a squad of 50 archers there under the leadership of Hazrat Abdullah bin Jubayr رضي الله عنه and strictly instructed them: 'Whether we win or lose, you will not leave this pass until we tell you to.'

The leader of the infidels of Makkah was Talha bin Abi Talha Abdari and the flag of the Muslims was in the hands of Hazrat Mus'ab bin Umair رضي الله عنه. Before the battle began, the leader of the infidels, Talha bin Abi Talha Abdari, came forward and challenged for a one on one duel. On behalf of the Muslims, Hazrat Zubair bin Awam رضي الله عنه moved forward and killed him. Then, his brother Usman bin Abi Talha advanced, and Hazrat Hamza رضي الله عنه killed him too. In this way, a few more infidels came, one after another raising their flag and getting killed. After that, full war broke out.

On behalf of the Muslims, Hazrat Ali, Hazrat Hamza, Hazrat Zubair, Abu Dujana and Abu Talha رضي الله عنهم showed great feats of bravery. Meanwhile, Hazrat Hamza رضي الله عنه who was fighting with great bravery and was tearing through the ranks of the enemy, was secretly attacked by a slave named 'Wahshi'. Hazrat Hamza رضي الله عنه was killed in that sudden attack. But despite this, the excellent strategy of the Nabi Karim ﷺ and the continuous attacks of the Companions رضي الله عنهم made the enemy infuriated to the extent that they fled from the battle field and even ran away from their camp. In this situation, the Muslims started collecting the war booty left by the enemy.

Misunderstanding of the Archers deployed on the Pass and the Change of Situation at the Battlefield: When the army of the Quraysh was fleeing the battle field, the archers at the pass thought that the Muslims had won. Despite the prohibition of Hazrat Abdullah bin Jubair رضي الله عنه, they left the pass unprotected to collect the booty. Only 10 archers remained at the pass, including Hazrat Abdullah bin Jubair رضي الله عنه. At the same time, Khalid bin Walid رضي الله عنه (who had not yet converted to Islam) noticed that only a few archers were guarding the pass so he attacked them. Now, since there were only a few archers left at the pass, they could not stop the large army of infidels, but they fought the infidels until they embraced martyrdom.

Then, Khalid bin Walid رضي الله عنه attacked from this pass, which caused severe damage to the Muslims as they were surrounded by the army of the infidels from the front and the back, and they were trapped in between. Meanwhile, the Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ was also seriously wounded and one of his blessed teeth was also broken. Hazrat Mus'ab bin Umair رضي الله عنه, the flag holder of the Muslim army, resembled The Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ. When he was martyred, a rumour spread that the Rasool-ul-Allah صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ had been martyred. This news demoralized the Muslims. Suddenly, Hazrat Ka'b bin Malik رضي الله عنه saw the Rasool-ul-Allah safe and sound and declared: 'O Muslims! The Rasool-ul-Allah صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ is alive.' At his voice, the Companions رضي الله عنهم gathered around The Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ and became his shield against the attackers. Meanwhile, Hazrat Abu Talha Ansari رضي الله عنه defended the Rasool-ul-Allah صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ in an excellent manner. Hazrat Saad bin Abi Waqas رضي الله عنه, who was a famous archer, did the same. The Rasool-ul-Allah صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ took out all the arrows from his quiver and placed them in front of him and said: 'My parents be sacrificed at you! Shoot with these arrows.'

Muslim women also showed great bravery in this battle along with the Companions رضي الله عنهم of The Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ. Hazrat Umme Amara رضي الله عنها was also defending The Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ and received 12 wounds. Apart from this, Hazrat Aisha رضي الله عنها, Umme Saleet رضي الله عنها, Umme Aiman رضي الله عنها, and Umme Sulaim رضي الله عنها kept providing water to the wounded soldiers. Gradually, the other Companions رضي الله عنهم of The Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ also gathered around him. Due to the regrouping of the Muslims and their pursuit of the enemy, the infidels did not dare to attack again. They thought it was better to return back so they left the field and went to Makkah.

Results:

- In this battle 70 Muslims were martyred while 22 disbelievers were killed.
- The Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ were severely injured and one of his teeth was broken.
- This war did not prove to be the decisive one because the infidels returned back without achieving their objective. They expected to eliminate all the Muslims and none of them would remain alive, but they failed.

- The hypocrites were exposed in this battle.
- In this battle, Muslims learnt that, success is only achieved by the obedience of the Nabi Karim ﷺ. If Muslim had not left the mountain passage, then the situation would have been different. Situation of the battle changed because of the disobedience of the Rasool-ul-Allah ﷺ and the Muslims faced huge losses.

It is learnt from this unit that

- Battle of Uhud was fought at the foothills of the Mount Uhud which is located 3 miles away from Madinah.
- This was the battle took place on 7th of Shawwal 3 A.H. and it was the second battle between the Muslims and the infidels of Makkah.
- In this battle, 70 Muslims were martyred, The Nabi Karim ﷺ was injured and 22 infidels were killed.
- This war was undecided. Though the infidels had upper hand but they could not achieve their goal.
- Muslims faced a lot of loss in this battle due to the misunderstanding among the soldiers appointed at the Mountain pass.
- The Nabi Karim's ﷺ beloved uncle Hamzah رضي الله عنه was martyred in this battle by a slave named 'Wahshi' (who later accepted Islam).

Activity for the students

Narrate the causes, events and results of the Battle of Uhud to each other.

Exercise

1. Answer the following questions.

1. State the causes of the Battle of Uhud?
2. Which advice did The Nabi Karim ﷺ accept in Masjid-e-Nabawi ﷺ about the Battle of Uhud?
3. Who was leading the army of the infidels of Makkah during the Battle of Uhud?
4. How many archers were appointed by The Nabi Karim ﷺ at the mountain pass?
5. Which woman participated practically in the battle of Uhud and got injured?

2. Tick '✓' the correct answer of the following:

1. Distance between Madinah and Mount Uhud is:

(A) 2 miles	(B) 3 miles
(C) 4 miles	(D) 5 miles
2. Number of the Muslims in Ghazwa-e-Uhud were:

(A) 1000	(B) 313
(C) 700	(D) 3000
3. Number of Muslims martyred in the Battle of Uhud were:

(A) 14	(B) 40
(C) 50	(D) 70

4. The Nabi Karim ﷺ appointed him as head of the archers at the Mountain pass:

- (A) Hazrat Abu Talha رضي الله عنه (B) Hazrat Saad bin Abi Waqas رضي الله عنه
(C) Hazrat Zubair رضي الله عنه (D) Hazrat Abdullah bin Jubair رضي الله عنه

5. The companion who resembled the Rasool-ul-Allah ﷺ was:

- (A) Hazrat Mus'ab bin Umair رضي الله عنه (B) Hazrat Abu Talha Ansari رضي الله عنه
(C) Hazrat Abu Dujana رضي الله عنه (D) Hazrat Hamzah رضي الله عنه

3. Fill in the blanks.

- _____ infidels were killed in the Battle of Uhud.
- Makkans fought the battle of Uhud to take _____ of the Battle of Badr.
- Information about the Makkan army was sent to The Nabi Karim ﷺ by his uncle _____.
- Hazrat Aisha رضي الله عنها, Umm Saleet رضي الله عنها, _____, and Umm Sulaim رضي الله عنها kept providing water to the wounded soldiers in this battle.
- One of The Nabi Karim's ﷺ _____ was broken in this battle.

4. Match the words in column 1 with appropriate words in column 2 to complete the sentences:

Column 1	Column 2
1. Infidel's army, under the leadership of Abu Sufyan,	which is now known as Jabal Rumaat.
2. The Nabi Karim ﷺ accepted the advice	A slave named Wahshi.
3. There was a mountain pass in Mount Uhud,	left for Madinah .
4. Hazrat Hamzah رضي الله عنه was martyred by	attacked the Muslims.
5. From the passage, Khalid bin Walid رضي الله عنه	of young companions رضي الله عنهم.

Instructions for the teachers

Tell the students about the importance of obeying the leader in the light of the Battle of Uhud.

6- The Battle of Trench (Ghazwa-e-Khandaq)

Learning Outcomes

After studying this chapter, the students will be able to:

- ❖ State the causes and background of Ghazwa-e-Khandaq or Battle of Trench (or Battle of Ahzab).
- ❖ Write about the situation and events of the Battle of Trench.
- ❖ Get information from the results of the Battle of Trench and write about it.

Ghazwa-e-Khandaq (The Battle of Trench):

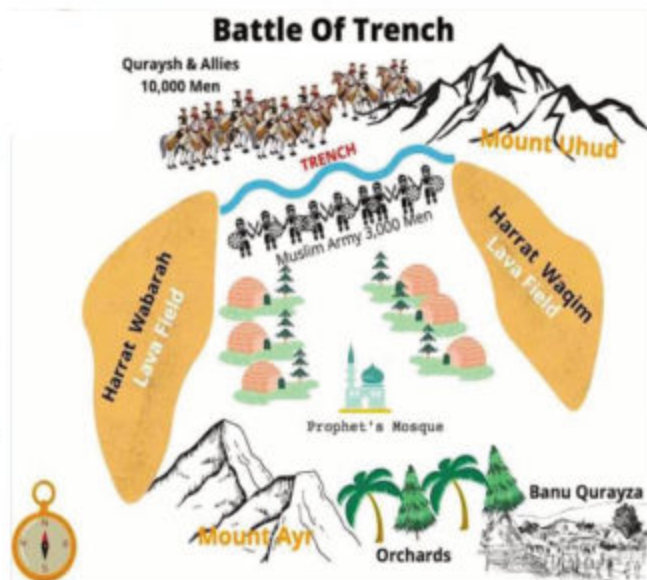

This battle was fought between the infidels of Makkah and their allies against the Muslims in the month of Shawwal, 5 A.H. In this battle Muslims dug a trench for the defence of Madinah, therefore, it is called Ghazwa-e-Khandaq (The Battle of Trench) and it is also called Ghazwa-e-Ahzab (The Battle of Allies) because different groups of infidels allied together against the Muslims and participated in the battle.

Causes of Ghazwa-e-Khandaq (The Battle of Trench):

- After the defeat of Badr and the indecisive battle of Uhud, the infidels were restless and wanted to take revenge from the Muslims. So, for taking the revenge and for a decisive war, they gathered under the banner of Abu Sufyan رضى الله عنه (who had not yet converted to Islam).
- The trade of the people of Makkah with Syria was already under threat, now after Muslim's control of Najd and Dumat Al-Jandal, their trade with the region of Iraq was also in danger, so, they decided to take extreme measures against the Muslims.

Events: Abu Sufyan رضى الله عنه (who had not yet converted to Islam), the head of Quraysh of Makkah, left Makkah with an army of four thousand people. Other allies joined him along the way. An army consisting of ten thousand warriors left for the purpose of marching on Madinah. On the other hand, the Rasool-ul-Allah صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ consulted the Companions رضى الله عنهم as soon as he heard about the infidel army. Hazrat Salman Farsi رضى الله عنه was of the opinion that Madinah should be defended by digging a trench around the city and everyone agreed on this opinion. The Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ examined the area by himself on a horse. There were Rocky Mountains, houses and gardens on three sides of Madinah, so the city was not in much danger from these sides. These sides could be defended by just making posts there. Only a distance of 3.5 miles from the northern side was an open field. There was a strong possibility that the enemy could attack from here. Therefore, it was decided to dig a trench on that side.

This distance was divided among 3000 Muslims soldiers (Mujahideen) in such a way that groups of ten people were formed. Each group was given the responsibility of digging ten yards. A trench of ten yards wide and ten yards deep was dug so that the enemy could not cross it. The Muslims started digging trenches with all their hard work and dedication. The Rasool-ul-Allah صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ himself took part in the digging of the trench. Within a week, the excavation of the trench was completed. The Nabi

Karim ﷺ divided the troops on different parts of the trench, and kept a part of trench under his control. Women and children were moved to safe forts. A group of 200 Muslim soldiers (Mujahideen) were appointed on the posts to protect the city of Madinah so that no enemy could enter the city.

Every day, the infidels appointed new generals in the hope that he would devise a strategy which would help them cross the trench. Every general would fight with his entire army on the day of his turn, but despite a several efforts, they could not cross the trench because the Mujahideen in the fronts on the other side would pierce them with arrows. At the area where the trench was less wide, the famous Arab war hero Abd Wudd, Dharar, Jubairah and Naufal crossed the trench with horses. Abd Wudd, who was considered equal to 1,000 brave men, challenged the Muslims for fight. Hazrat Ali رضي الله عنه fought with him bravely and killed him. Dharar and Jubaira escaped, Naufal fell into the trench and was killed by Hazrat Ali رضي الله عنه.

The Jews of Banu Qurayzah were allies of the Muslims because of the Treaty of Madinah. However, Huyayy bin Akhtab, chieftain of Banu Nadhir, an exiled tribe of the Jews, came to them and succeeded in convincing them to break the treaty and inciting them against the Muslims. As the Jews of Banu Qurayzah lived close to the Muslims on the inner side of the trench, they planned to attack the Muslim forts, where the women and children of the Muslims were safe. When a Jew came near the fort to assess the situation, Hazrat Safiyyah رضي الله عنها, the maternal aunt of the Nabi Karim ﷺ saw him. She attacked him and killed him, then threw his head towards the Jews. Hazrat Safiyyah's رضي الله عنها strategy struck fear into the hearts of the Jews. They thought that there were significant number of Muslim soldiers (Mujahideen) inside the fort, so they did not dare to approach the fort again.

A newly converted Muslim, Hazrat Nuaim bin Masood Ashjai رضي الله عنه, whose conversion to Islam was not known to anyone, adopted a strategy that ended the alliance between the Jews and the infidels. Thus, Muslims benefited from the chaos of Jews and infidels in Makkah. On the other hand, since the infidels of Makkah were unaware of the trench strategy of the Nabi Karim ﷺ, so they did not arrange enough food and supplies for the campaign. Hence, their supplies began to run out. Meanwhile the winter season also started and the soldiers of the infidels of Makkah began to fall ill due to weather. One night, a stormy wind blew which scattered all the equipment of the infidels of Makkah, and their tents were overturned.

The severity of the weather, the long span of siege, the stormy wind, the scarcity of supplies and the isolation of the Jews, all together, all these factors weakened their morale and stroke fear into their hearts. Under these conditions, the army of the infidels gave up their intention to stay there any longer and after besieging Madinah for about a month, they ended the siege and returned back with a failed campaign.

The war of Trench was actually not a war of loss of life and property but a war of nerves, in which no bloody battle took place, but still it was a decisive battle of Islamic history. As a result of this battle, the morale of the polytheists was broken and it became clear that no Arab force could destroy the small Muslim force that was developing in Madinah, because the Arabs could not provide a greater force than that had been provided in the Trench war. So, after returning from the battle field, the Rasool-ul-Allah ﷺ said: 'Now we will attack them, they will not attack us. Now our army will go towards them.' All of his words were proven to be true as the infidels of the Arabs did not have the courage to attack Madinah later on.

Results:

- The Battle of Trench proved to be a decisive battle in favour of the Muslims as all the Arabs attacked the Muslims with full force, but they failed before the strategy of the Nabi Karim ﷺ.
- After the Battle of Trench, the Quraysh of Makkah lost their power and were unable to attack the Muslims again.
- All the Arab tribes were overwhelmed and awed by the Muslims and they were surprised by the war strategy of the Nabi Karim ﷺ.
- After the Battle of Trench, Arab tribes rapidly started to accept Islam.

The Battle of Trench teaches us that the help and support of Allah is always with those who are firm and steady on the path of truth. Therefore, we should trust Allah Almighty and not be afraid of the sufferings in the path of truth and righteousness. In this path lies the success of both worlds.

It is learnt from this unit that

- The Battle of Trench was fought at Madinah in the month of Shawwal 5 A.H.
- This battle was fought between Muslims against the infidels of Makkah and their allies.
- In this battle, the Muslims dug a trench around Madinah to protect themselves.
- This battle proved to be decisive in favour of the Muslims because after this battle, disbelievers did not have the power to attack the Muslims.
- After this battle The Nabi Karim ﷺ said: 'Now we will attack them, they will not attack us. Now our army will go towards them.'

Activity for the students

Students need to write down about cause, results and number of Muslims and infidel's armies in their note books.

Exercise

1. Answer the following questions:

1. Describe the meanings of 'Trench' and 'Allies'.
2. Where was the battle of Trench fought?
3. Which of the Companions رضي الله عنهم of The Nabi Karim ﷺ advised to dig a trench?
4. What were the causes of the Battle of Trench?

2. Tick '✓' the correct answer of the following:
