

CHAPTER-5

BEARERS OF GUIDANCE FAMOUS ISLAMIC PERSONALITIES

Introduction

Our Lord favoured His servants by sending Ambiya عليهم السلام from Hazrat Adam عليه السلام to حضرت محمد ﷺ, who reminded them of their forgotten covenant of monotheism and tried to protect them from all evil deeds. One of these Ambiya عليهم السلام is the last prophet of Bani Israel, Ulul Azm (Determined Prophet), Hazrat Isa عليه السلام (Jesus Christ). After the Ambiya عليهم السلام, in relation to the work of spreading the religion and the fulfilment of their duty, the name of those people come, who received blessings directly from the Ambiya عليهم السلام and supported them in this quest. These people are called ‘Ashab’ meaning, the Companions. Such companions were with every prophet. Among these companions, the companions the Nabi Karim ﷺ of hold a special place. In this chapter, along with Hazrat Isa عليه السلام, two of the companions of the Nabi Karim ﷺ, Hazrat Usman رضي الله عنه and Hazrat Khalid bin Walid رضي الله عنه who is known by the title of ‘Saifullah’ meaning the Sword of Allah, will be studied. Along with other companions, these two persons are the personalities who fought and endured hardships along with The Nabi Karim ﷺ during the propagation of Tawhid and preaching of Islam. We should know that we are Muslims today due to the efforts of the Companions رضي الله عنهم of The Nabi Karim ﷺ.

Objectives

The purpose of the topics given in this chapter is to create awareness among the student about the hardships which Allah Almighty’s beloved Hazrat Isa عليه السلام faced from his nation Bani Israel, during the preaching of religion and the propagation of monotheism (Tawhid). Attempts were made to kill and crucify him, but Allah lifted him safely to the heavens. The objective of this chapter is to inform students about these facts and to tell them about the efforts made by the companions of the Nabi Karim ﷺ, Hazrat Usman رضي الله عنه and Hazrat Khalid bin Walid رضي الله عنه, regarding the suppression of disbelief and polytheism, and their accomplishments during Jihad (armed warfare), the spread of Islam and Islamic conquests. Children should be introduced to the achievements which these personalities have accomplished so that they can prepare themselves to serve Islam by following their footsteps.

1-Hazrat Isa عليه السلام

Learning Outcomes

After studying this unit, the students will be able to:

- ❖ State the virtuousness and piety of Hazrat Maryam عليها السلام
- ❖ Learn and explain the noble birth of Ulul Azm (determined) Prophet, Hazrat Isa عليه السلام without a father.
- ❖ Learn and write about what Hazrat Isa عليه السلام said immediately after his birth to prove his mother's chastity.
- ❖ Learn and write about Hazrat Isa's عليه السلام safe ascension to the heavens while he was alive.

Introduction:

Hazrat Isa عليه السلام is a beloved servant and Rasool-ul-Allah. He is counted among the Ulul Azm (determined) Ambiya عليهم السلام of Allah. The name 'Messiah' has also appeared for Hazrat Isa عليه السلام in the Quran and Ahadith of The Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ. He was sent as a Rasool to the nation of Israel (known as the Jews). He was born in the city of 'Bethlehem' in Jerusalem, about five and a half centuries before our beloved Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ.

Hazrat Isa's عليه السلام mother's name was Hazrat Maryam عليها السلام. Hazrat Maryam's عليه السلام father's name was Imran and her mother's name was Hannah. Hazrat Maryam عليها السلام was a pious servant of Allah Almighty. When Hazrat Maryam عليها السلام grew up, Almighty Allah gave birth to Hazrat Isa عليه السلام from her. Hazrat Isa عليه السلام was born without father by the command of Allah Almighty.

When Hazrat Isa عليه السلام was born, shortly after his birth, he began to speak and said: 'Indeed, I am the servant of Allah. He has given me the Scripture and made me a Prophet. And He has made me blessed and has enjoined upon me Namaz and Zakat as long as I remain alive and made me an obedient and dutiful son to my mother. Blessed was I on the day I was born, and blessed shall I be on the day I would die and on the day I would be raised to life again.' Hazrat Isa عليه السلام spoke from his mother's lap at such an age that infants are not able to speak.

Hazrat Isa عليه السلام was blessed by Allah with the honour of prophet-hood and revelation at the age of about 30 years. He revealed upon him the divine scripture Injeel (The New Testament) so he started the preaching of Islam as a Nabi. At that time, the nation of Bani Israel had declined and it had become involved in polytheism. The fear of Allah had gone out of their hearts. They considered the things forbidden by Allah as Halal (permissible) and considered the Halal (permissible) things as Haram (forbidden) and avoided eating them. Therefore, they had become involved in various kinds of evils. Hazrat Isa عليه السلام exhorted them to do good deeds and tried to make them understand.

Allah Almighty gave him many miracles. By the order of Allah Almighty, Hazrat Isa عليه السلام used to heal the sick people, who were considered incurable by the specialist doctors. He used to resurrect the dead by the permission of Allah Almighty. He even made the people who were born dumb, speak. The lepers would be healed. He would make the people who were blind by birth to see. He would make a sculpture of a bird out of clay and blow into it with the name of Allah, then it would really fly as a real bird. Hazrat Isa عليه السلام used to preach and heal the sick and suffering people. While revealing these miracles, he used to say that these miracles were from Allah Almighty and all that was happening with the permission of Him.

The Jews did not like the preaching activities of Hazrat Isa عليه السلام and his call to the religion of Allah. They feared by the fact that Hazrat Isa عليه السلام would end their religious leadership and monopoly, so they declared war against Hazrat Isa عليه السلام. They defamed and accused him. They gave him the title of a 'Sorcerer' and began to abuse him. His mother Hazrat Maryam عليها السلام was subjected to insults and taunts. Hazrat Isa عليه السلام remained patient with the sufferings from the Bani Israel and continued to make his nation understand the message of Allah Almighty. When he saw that the strong and influential Jews were opposing him, he became disappointed with these people and turned his efforts towards the poor and needy people. He started preaching the religion among the poor, fishermen, washermen and labourers on the bank of a lake. His preaching had a great effect on these people and thus, his message spread rapidly in the area of Palestine.

Some of the people of Bani Israel who believed in Hazrat Isa عليه السلام were those who were very close and sincere to him. They are known as Hawari of Isa عليه السلام (Disciples of Jesus). Hawari means very close and helpful people. When the Jews saw the popularity of Hazrat Isa عليه السلام, they became afraid. They wanted to get rid of him. They went to the Roman governor of Palestine and complained that Hazrat Isa عليه السلام had started to corrupt their religion and he was misleading their youth. They said that he was a revolutionary person bent on rebellion and a huge threat to the government. If his work was not stopped, then, there would be a great riot in the region.

The Roman governor knew the reason of the enmity of the Jews with Hazrat Isa عليه السلام, however, the Romans were idolaters and wanted to get rid of Hazrat Isa عليه السلام along with the Jews. Therefore, the Roman governor decided to crucify Hazrat Isa عليه السلام. The Romans made the Jews declare this decision and when the appointed time of his crucifixion came, people gathered around his house. Among them were his followers from the Jews and some common people. At that time, the Jews treated Allah's Nabi Hazrat Isa عليه السلام very badly and caused him extreme sufferings.

In this crowd there was also the person who had once informed the Roman governor about Hazrat Isa's whereabouts and had gotten him arrested. In the darkness of the night, the Roman governor's soldiers could not find Hazrat Isa عليه السلام and because of the crowd and commotion, they thought this person (the one who had informed the governor about Hazrat Isa's whereabouts) to be Hazrat Isa عليه السلام and crucified him. Allah Almighty raised Hazrat Isa عليه السلام to the heavens with respect and in a pure state by His command. The belief of Muslims is that Hazrat Isa عليه السلام is alive in the heavens. Earlier to the Day of Resurrection, Allah will send him to earth again and Dajjal will be killed by him.

It is learnt from this unit that

- Allah Almighty has the power and authority over everything. Everything is subject to His command. If He wants, He can create (a being) without parents, just like He created Adam عليه السلام without parents from dust. If He wants, He can create someone without a father, like He created Hazrat Isa عليه السلام.
- Hazrat Isa عليه السلام is the servant of Allah. He is neither a God nor a son of God. He used to eat and drink and he was dependent upon Allah Almighty in every action while Allah Almighty is free from eating, drinking and every other dependency.
- The extraordinary and unusual things that appeared from Hazrat Isa عليه السلام are called miracles. These things only appear with the permission of Allah and His servant does not interfere in them. Allah gives miracles to the Ambiya عليهم السلام.
- Hazrat Maryam عليها السلام, the mother of Hazrat Isa عليه السلام, was a pious and very noble servant of Allah. Allah created Hazrat Isa عليه السلام by His power from her.

2-Hazrat Usman رضى الله عنه

Learning Outcomes

After studying this unit, the students will be able to:

- ❖ State the lineage of Hazrat Usman رضى الله عنه.
- ❖ Learn about the marriage of the Nabi Karim's صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ two daughters with Hazrat Usman رضى الله عنه one after the other.
- ❖ Write about Hazrat Usman's رضى الله عنه financial sacrifices for serving Islam and Muslims.
- ❖ State important points form the Caliphate of Hazrat Usman رضى الله عنه.

Name and Lineage:

His name was Usman رضى الله عنه his Kunya (surname) was Abu Abdullah and Abu Umar and his title was 'Zun-Noorain.' His father's name was Affan and his mother's name was Arwa. The lineage of Hazrat Usman رضى الله عنه is traced to the Nabi Karim's صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ ancestors in the fifth generation. He is called 'Zun-Noorain' because The Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ married his two daughters, Sayyida Ruqayyah رضى الله عنها and Sayyida Umme Kulthum رضى الله عنها, one after the other to Hazrat Usman رضى الله عنه. 'Zun-Noorain' means 'the one who has two lights'. Hazrat Usman رضى الله عنه belonged to the famous Banu Umayyah branch of the Quraysh. The Banu Umayyah family was very respectable from very early.

Hazrat Usman رضى الله عنه was born 47 years before the migration of the Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ. It was the sixth year after the famous incident of the elephants. He had learned to read and write at that time. In his youth, he took up the profession of trade. Due to his honesty, uprightness and integrity, he had achieved so much progress in it that he was counted among the wealthy people of Quraysh. That is why he was called 'Ghani' (the Rich one).

Acceptance of Islam:

When Hazrat Usman رضى الله عنه was 34 years old, the voice of monotheism was raised in Makkah. He had a very close relationship with Hazrat Abu Bakr رضى الله عنه. He was inclined towards Islam by the preaching of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique رضى الله عنه and accepted Islam at the blessed hand of the Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ. After accepting Islam, The Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ married his daughter Hazrat Ruqayyah رضى الله عنها to him. Because of Hazrat Usman's رضى الله عنه conversion to Islam, all his relatives turned away from him. Hazrat Usman رضى الله عنه continued to tolerate their persecutions. Finally, when the permission of migration was granted by Allah, Hazrat Usman رضى الله عنه accompanied his wife Hazrat Ruqayyah رضى الله عنها and migrated to Abyssinia to avoid the persecutions of the infidels. After staying there for a few years, he returned back to Makkah and then after a few days, he migrated to Madinah.

Beir Rumah: That well which Hazrat Uthman رضي الله عنه purchased and dedicated for the use of Muslims

When the Muslims reached Madinah after the migration, they found that there was a great problem of fresh water in Madinah. There was only one well of fresh water known as 'Beir Rumah' which was owned by a Jew. The Jew had made the water of the well as a source of livelihood. Hazrat Usman رضي الله عنه was very rich. He bought half of the well at the demanded price of 12,000 dirhams of silver. After a few days, he bought the other half for 8,000 dirhams (the current price of which is about five million rupees) and dedicated it for the use of the Muslims.

Hazrat Usman رضي الله عنه participated in all the battles with the Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ. In the Battle of Badr, due to the illness of Hazrat Ruqayyah رضي الله عنها, the Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ stopped him from participating in the war and asked him to take care of his wife. He could not participate in this battle by the order of The Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ.

Shortly after the Battle of Badr, Sayyida Ruqayyah رضي الله عنها died in 2 Ramadan A.H. After her death, in 3 Rabi-ul-Awwal A.H., the Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ married his daughter Hazrat Umme Kulthum رضي الله عنها to Hazrat Usman Ghani رضي الله عنه.

Hazrat Usman Ghani's wealth was always used in the service of Islam. The Battle of Tabuk took place at the time when there was a severe famine in Arabia. On this occasion, Hazrat Usman رضي الله عنه served Islam in a way that he bore half or a third of the expenses of the army for this campaign. Apart from this, he offered 1,000 camels, 70 horses and 1,000 dinars in cash. The service of Hazrat Usman رضي الله عنه had such an effect on the Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَأَصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ that he used to bounce the Ashrafis given by Hazrat Usman رضي الله عنه on his hand and say:

مَا ضَرَّ عُثْمَانَ مَا عَمِلَ بَعْدَ الْيَوْمِ

Translation: After today, no action of Usman رضي الله عنه can harm him.

After the martyrdom of Hazrat Umar Farooq رضي الله عنه in 23 A.H., Hazrat Usman Ghani رضي الله عنه was chosen for the post of caliph. First of all, Hazrat Abdul Rahman bin Awf رضي الله عنه pledged allegiance to him. After that, Hazrat Ali رضي الله عنه raised his hand to offer pledge of allegiance. After the pledge of Hazrat Ali رضي الله عنه, all other people offered their pledge of allegiance to Hazrat Usman رضي الله عنه. Hazrat Usman Ghani's رضي الله عنه caliphate lasted for 12 years. The first six years passed with widespread peace and order and great victories were achieved during this period.

Blessed Grave of Hazrat Uthman رضي الله عنه in Jannat-ul-Baqi

A newly converted Muslim, Abdullah bin Saba, who was apparently a Muslim, but was a hypocrite in reality, invented new beliefs to harm Islam and created divisions among the Muslims. He made great efforts to disrupt the system of caliphate and raised suspicions against Hazrat Usman رضي الله عنه. He provoked some people to revolt against Hazrat Usman رضي الله عنه by making various accusations against him. Finally, as a result of these accusations some people of a rebellious group of Egypt attacked Hazrat Usman رضي الله عنه and martyred him. At that time, he was reciting the Holy Quran. This incident happened on Friday, 18 Dhu Al-Hajj, 35 A.H. He was 82 years old at the time of martyrdom. His caliphate was a few days short of twelve years.

It is learnt from this unit that

- Hazrat Usman رضي الله عنه belonged to a noble clan of the Quraysh called Banu Umayyah.
- The Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ married two of his daughters, Sayyida Ruqayyah رضي الله عنها and Sayyida Umme Kulthum رضي الله عنها, one after the other to Hazrat Usman رضي الله عنه. Due to this, he was called 'Zun-Noorain'.
- Hazrat Usman رضي الله عنه is included among those who got the honour of participating in two migrations. He spent a lot of wealth for the promotion of Islam and service of the Muslims.
- On the occasion of Tabuk when he offered exemplary service in the way of Islam, The Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ said: 'After today, no action of Usman رضي الله عنه can harm him.'
- After almost 12 years of his rule, he was martyred by rebels oppressively.

Instructions for the teachers

Inform the students with detailed evidences about Hazrat Usman's رضي الله عنه martyrdom by the rebels.

3-Hazrat Khalid bin Walid رضي الله عنه

Learning Outcomes

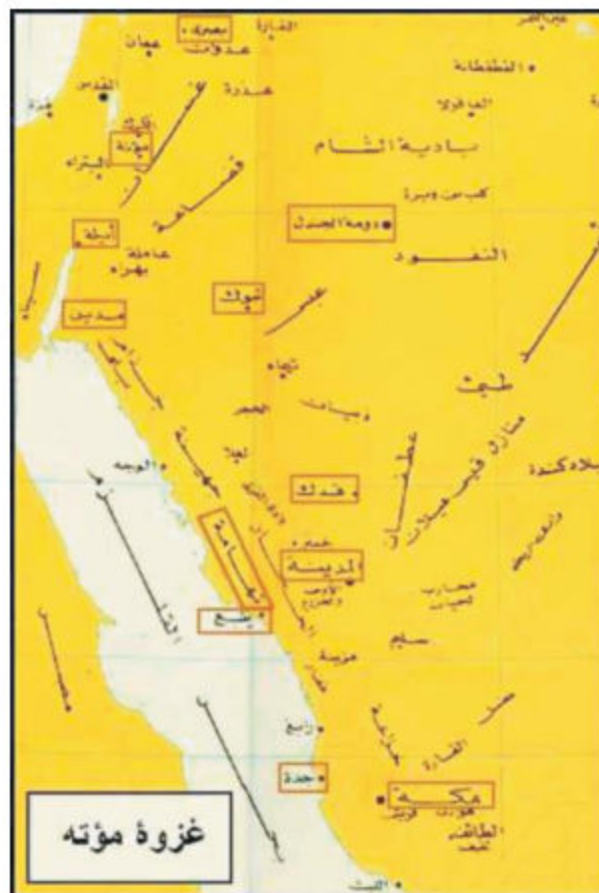

After studying this unit, the students will be able to:

- ❖ Write about the lineage of the most famous general of Islam, Hazrat Khalid bin Walid رضي الله عنه.
- ❖ Learn and explain about the remarkable achievements of Hazrat Khalid bin Walid رضي الله عنه during the Islamic campaigns.

Hazrat Khalid bin Walid رضي الله عنه belonged to Banu Makhzum branch of Quraysh. His Kunya (surname) was Abu Sulaiman. His mother's name was Asma bint Haris. She was the sister of Umm-ul-Momineen (Mother of the Faithful) Hazrat Maimunah رضي الله عنها.

Hazrat Khalid bin Walid رضي الله عنه is considered as one of the bravest and most famous generals of Islam. He became a Muslim in 8 A.H. The Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ gave him the title of 'Saifullah'. Moota is the name of a town near Balqa in Jordan, a battle took place there, which is famous by the name of Ghazwa-e-Moota. The Rasool-ul-Allah صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ sent Hazrat Zaid bin Harith رضي الله عنه with 3000 Muslim soldiers (Mujahideen), and instructed that if Zaid bin Harith رضي الله عنه was martyred then Hazrat Jafar bin Abi Talib رضي الله عنه would be the commander of the army.

If he was also martyred then Abdullah bin Rawaha رضي الله عنه would be the Army Commander. When they reached there, the Romans had brought 100,000 troops to fight. There was no comparison between three thousand soldiers at one side and one hundred thousand soldiers on the other side. But a small army of 3000 Muslims came out to fight against the army of 100,000 with the spirit of martyrdom. Hazrat Zaid bin Haritha رضي الله عنه was martyred while fighting. After him, Hazrat Jafar رضي الله عنه took the flag in his hands. He too was martyred while fighting the enemy. Then, Hazrat Abdullah bin Rawaha رضي الله عنه took the flag after him. He was also martyred. In the end, Hazrat Khalid bin Walid رضي الله عنه took up the flag. He fought with such bravery that there is no example in history similar to it. Nine of his swords were broken while fighting the enemies. Finally, one Yemeni sword was left in his hands, with which he continued to fight. He brought the remaining Muslim army out of the grip of the enemies with great bravery and wisdom. Allah informed the Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ about this critical situation of the Battle of Moota through a revelation. So, the Nabi Karim صَلَّى اللهُ عَلَيْهِ وَعَلَى آلِهِ وَاصْحَابِهِ وَسَلَّمَ while describing this situation of the battle to the Companions رضي الله عنه said: 'Zaid رضي الله عنه took the flag in his hand and he is martyred, after that Jafar رضي الله عنه

رضی اللہ عنہ has taken the flag in his hands and he has also been martyred. Then, Abdullah bin Rawaha رضی اللہ عنہ has this flag in his hands and he is also martyred. In the end, one of the swords of Allah (Khalid bin Walid رضی اللہ عنہ) has taken this flag in his hands and Allah has blessed his hands with victory.'

Hazrat Khalid bin Walid رضی اللہ عنہ was present with the Nabi Karim ﷺ on the occasion of the conquest of Makkah. He had appointed him as the commander of a wing of the army. On this occasion, some of the people of the Quraysh were killed by his soldiers.

Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique رضی اللہ عنہ sent Hazrat Khalid bin Walid رضی اللہ عنہ as an army commander during his caliphate to suppress those tribes who were denying the payment of Zakat and against the apostates. Thus, under his command, the army completely wiped out the enemies of Islam and reduced their pride to dust. When Hazrat Umar رضی اللہ عنہ removed him from the post of the Commander of the Syria, he appointed Hazrat Abu Ubaidah bin Jarrah رضی اللہ عنہ at his place. When Abu Ubaidah bin Jarrah رضی اللہ عنہ reached there, Hazrat Khalid bin Walid رضی اللہ عنہ said that he heard the Rasool-ul-Allah ﷺ said the following about Hazrat Abu Ubaidah رضی اللہ عنہ: 'The Amin (trustworthy) of this Ummah is Abu Ubaidah bin Jarrah رضی اللہ عنہ' In response, Hazrat Abu Ubaidah bin Jarrah رضی اللہ عنہ said that he had heard that the Nabi Karim ﷺ had said the following about Hazrat Khalid bin Walid رضی اللہ عنہ: 'Khalid is one of the swords of Allah, he is a good young man of the noble family.' The whole life of Hazrat Khalid bin Walid رضی اللہ عنہ was spent doing Jihad (armed warfare) for Islam. Finally, this great hero of Islam died in 21 A.H. in Syria.

It is learnt from this unit that

- Hazrat Khalid bin Walid رضی اللہ عنہ was counted among the greatest and bravest generals of Islam among the companions of The Nabi Karim ﷺ.
- On the occasion of Moota, The Nabi Karim ﷺ sent 3000 soldiers who faced 100,000 Christian soldiers. They showed such feats of bravery that there is no other example of it in history.
- Hazrat Khalid bin Walid رضی اللہ عنہ brought the remaining Muslim army out of the grip of the enemy with great bravery and wisdom.
- The Nabi Karim ﷺ awarded him with the title of 'Saifullah' i.e., the Sword of Allah.
